

Please join us for breakfast and an educational seminar

Drone Security Summit

Evolving security solutions as drone threats become more prevalent

AGENDA:

- 8 am Exhibits Open
Breakfast sponsored by Axis[®]
-
- 8:30 am Drones from a Homeland Security Perspective
 Insights from the FAA
-
- 9 am Emerging Detection Technology
TEAM101 Demonstration – Awareness Beyond the Perimeter
-
- 9:30 am Remote Security: Alternatives for Security Managers
-
- 9:45 am Exhibits Reopen
Hobby Drone Flying Lessons Sponsored by Rocky Mountain Unmanned Systems
Open Discussion
-
- 10 am Prize Giveaways
-
- 10:45 am Close of Exhibits & Flying Lessons

KEYNOTE:

Mark Lemery

U.S. Department of Homeland Security

- Mark has over 23 years of intelligence experience at the multinational, federal, state, and local levels.
- His current role as Critical Infrastructure Protection Coordinator makes him responsible for leading and managing the State of Utah's critical infrastructure protection program.
- Mark was a Lieutenant Colonel - Intelligence Officer in the US Air Force from 1992-2013 holding various positions in the intelligence and surveillance operations.
- Holds a Master of Science, Strategic Intelligence from the National Intelligence University, Defense Intelligence Agency, Washington, D.C.

WHEN:

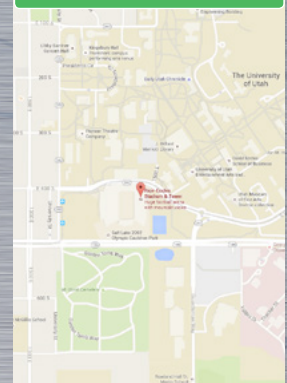

Tuesday
Oct. 27th, 2015
8 – 11 am

WHERE:

University of Utah Stadium
451 South 1400 East
Salt Lake City, UT 84112

SEATING IS LIMITED

 RSVP Now ***

Click for directions

CONTACT / QUESTIONS:

Security101

Amanda Ellis

801.281.7208

aellis@security101.com

I'm attending!

